TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Australians do not want treaties or trade agreements that threaten our working standards, way of life and the environment.

Money cannot be eaten. If one workers standards deteriorate don't worry yours and those around you will also suffer eventually. Cheap labour and employees willing to work for little are abundant at this time.

Any person who signs an agreement that signs away Australia's sovereignty as a nation and those that support him will be remembered with hatred for decades to come.

The idea that a corporation is supreme over an elected government goes against all that's makes up a modern democracy. Countries are being sued by corporations over national policy..see Canada, Peru and others.

If you have any conscience please see your way to stop this insanity at every turn.

Thanking you

Kimm Woodward
