

I would like to comment on Christine Milnes bill in the senate which supports the public are fully informed as to the origins of food and its ingredients on its labels. this will protect this country's food supply and its producers. We want to buy from local growers but misleading labelling often prevents us from doing so. please protect our producers by allowing this bill to pass.

Sincerely,
Michella burgers