All - I only found out about the possibility for submissions to this recently so I'll keep it brief and let my work speak for itself.

Per the "Artist Notes" on my work available here titled -

"Genuine Satire for Commercial Purposes"

<https://www.redbubble.com/people/posty/works/28430498-genuine-satire-for-commercial-purposes>

"Currently the government is trying to criminalise satire in some weird attempt to stop phishers and con artists as far as I can tell.

Who generally operate outside of Australia.

Who are already likely committing fraud or the like and could be done on that.

The government has tacked on an clause that's pretty flimsy.

it states (emphasis mine):

"conduct does not include conduct engaged SOLELY for genuine satirical, academic or artistic purposes."

I'm getting this in as prior art aww yeah no retrospective laws thankfully.

If any lawyers ask this is for all purposes specifically the ones that don't result in 5 years of gaol.

Credit to Oren neu dag for the dank buds.

The work is available in a hoodie, because I know Canberra is a very cold place.

I hope you see my self-evident "A Picture Says A Thousand Words" point.

See next page for the primary work - secondary work continued in same vein also available.
