

The Wesleyan Methodist Church of Australia

3rd of April 2012

TO: SENATE LEGAL AND CONSTITUTIONAL COMMITTEE

The position of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of Australia on marriage is, being only between one man and one woman. We embrace and celebrate this view as one of our key constitutional statements that is firmly rooted in our Articles of faith.

It is our conviction that redefining marriage is harmful to our society and has potential serious consequences for religious freedom.

Therefore the members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of Australia stand totally opposed to the proposed bills.

Yours truly,

Rev. Rex E Rigby

National Superintendent
Wesleyan Methodist Church of Australia
