JOINT STANDING COMMITTEE ON TREATIES

Defence supplies and services - Japan

Issue date: Monday 22 May 2017

Defence supplies and regional security

Australia's bilateral defence relationship with Japan will be the subject of a public hearing today by the Joint Standing Committee on Treaties.

The Committee is reviewing a proposed agreement for the reciprocal provision of supplies and services between the Australian Defence Force and the Self-Defense Forces of Japan. The Committee will hear evidence from the Department of Defence as the lead agency for the agreement.

Committee Chair the Hon Stuart Robert MP explained that the proposed agreement expands the terms of a similar agreement signed in 2010, reflecting changes in Japan's domestic laws and its more active role in global peace and security.

"Australia's relationship with Japan is more important than ever as increasing tensions in the Asia-Pacific risk regional and global security. The Committee will examine the revised terms of this agreement to ensure that it sufficiently enables increasing cooperation between the Australian Defence Force and Self-Defense Forces of Japan in the face of regional instability", Mr Robert said.

The Committee will table its report on the proposed Agreement in the Parliament by 9 August 2017.

Public Hearing details:
