

To those involved in the Live Export Inquiry

I will keep this short. Please make animal welfare your first priority, what kind of country have we become to ignore this for so long. The only outcome I would like to see is banning Live Export all together. The very least if they must endure the trip they should have a death that is quick and efficient via stunning. Thank you for your time.

Sophia Pegiou