

Australian Government response to the Senate Legal and Constitutional Affairs Legislation Committee report:

Migration Amendment (Clarification of Jurisdiction) Bill 2018

Recommendations

Recommendation 1

2.37 The committee recommends that the bill be passed.
Response:
The Government notes this recommendation. However, given the passage of time since the report was tabled, a substantive Government response is no longer appropriate.
Dissenting Report by the Australian Greens
Recommendation 1
1.10 The Australian Greens recommend that the bill not be passed.
Response:
The Government notes this recommendation. However, given the passage of time since the report was tabled, a substantive Government response is no longer appropriate.
Additional Comments – Centre Alliance
Recommendation 1
That the government consider directing the Australian Law Reform Commission to inquire into the current judicial review pathways contained in Part 8 of the Migration Act 1958 with a view to removing complexity and aligning grounds of review with those under the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 (Cth).
Response:
The Government notes this recommendation. However, given the passage of time since the report was tabled, a substantive Government response is no longer appropriate.
