

My name is Sean Jones, I am a 20 year old student from Victoria and I want to support this bill. I think this bill is important as it prohibits government funding to coal-fired power stations because of their impact on the environment. I also support the bill to transition workers from the coal industry in to other areas.