

Thought for Today: "Not everything that counts can be counted, and not everything that can be counted counts." (Sign hanging in Albert Einstein's office at Princeton.)

Could the Committee please take serious note of the report by the Productivity Commission on the costs and benefits of FTAs, recommend its suggested changes, and hopefully put an end to the whole FTA nonsense – especially Investor-State Dispute Settlement provisions.

Best Regards,

Ray Bricknell