

Dear Sir/Madam

I am writing as a wife of an Ex Serviceman. I am extremely concerned over the proposed changes to be implemented next year by the Government to bring military superannuation under the same umbrella as other Commonwealth employees.

I cannot see how these two superannuation's can be compared. My husband serviced his country for 21 years. In this time he served overseas and although he was one of the lucky ones who does not have any problems resulting from his time, the point of the matter is that "he did serve his country".

I am only asking that we get fair and equal representation on the committee. To me it seems very biased to one side. All military personnel whether still serving or ex servicemen and women deserve special consideration and I ask that you support our request for swift intervention of this proposed change.

Yours sincerely
