To: The Committee Secretary, JSCEM

Dear Sir,

Please accept this submission for the JSCEM's Inquiry into the 2007 Federal Election.

I am a citizen of Australia yet I have not being allowed to vote in an election - Local, State and Federal since leaving the country for work purposed in February 1991.

I am a descendant of the 3rd Fleet so my ties with Australia go back to our European origins.

When I reach my retirement age I expect to return to Australia to live. I still pay taxes, my family all live in Australia. I am envious of friends and colleagues from other countries who still can participate in their countries elections.

What happens in parliament still effects me even though I no longer reside in Australia!

Yours sincerely

Peter McCombe
