CANBERRA

THE AGREEMENT ESTABLISHING

THE ADVISORY CENTRE ON WTO LAW

(Seattle, 30 November 1999)

Not yet in force

[2010] ATNIF 20

THE PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT

Noting that the Agreement Establishing the World Trade Organisation (hereinafter referred to as the "WTO") created a complex legal system and elaborate procedures for the settlement of disputes;

Noting further that developing countries, in particular the least developed among them, and the countries with economies in transition have limited expertise in WTO law and the management of complex trade disputes and their ability to acquire such expertise is subject to severe financial and institutional constraints;

Recognising that a proper balance of rights and obligations under the Agreement Establishing the WTO can only be maintained if all Members of the WTO have a full understanding of their rights and obligations thereunder and an equal opportunity to resort to the WTO dispute settlement procedures;

Recognising further that the credibility and acceptability of the WTO dispute settlement procedures can only be ensured if all Members of the WTO can effectively participate in it;

Resolved, therefore, to create a source of legal training, expertise and advice on WTO law readily accessible to developing countries, in particular the least developed among them, and countries with economies in transition;

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1

Notes:

1. If a Member considers it necessary, it may make its contribution in equal annual instalments during the four years following the entry into force of this Agreement.
2. The classification of countries listed in this Annex II into Group A, B and C Members was made on the basis of their share of world trade with an upward correction reflecting their per capita income, as indicated in the table below. The share of world trade was determined on the basis of the share of world trade that the WTO used to determine the share of its Members in the expenses of the WTO. The per capita income was based on World Bank statistics. Taking into account these criteria and sources of statistics, the Management Board shall review the classification of Members listed in this Annex at least once every five years and, if necessary, modify the classification to reflect any changes in the share of world trade and/or per capita income of such Members.

| Category | World Trade Share | GNP per capita |
|----------|-----------------------------|-------------------------------|
| A | > = 1,5% or | High Income countries |
| B | > = 0,15 % and < 1,5% or | Upper Middle Income countries |
| C | < 0,15% | |

3. The provisions of Article 7 of this Agreement and Annex IV to this Agreement shall apply equally to the least developed countries listed in Annex III that have not accepted this Agreement and the least developed countries listed in Annex III that have accepted this Agreement.
4. States and customs territories listed in Annex II that are not Members of the Centre, may request the support of the Centre in WTO dispute settlement proceedings subject to the fees indicated in Annex IV to this Agreement. Such support will be provided on the condition that no Member of the Centre is involved in the same case or any Member that is involved in the same case authorises the Centres' support to such

State or customs territory. All other services shall be provided exclusively to Members and least developed countries.
