Subject: International Criminal Court

Mr. Bob Morris

Canberra ACT 2600

DEAR SIR,

As a citizen of this country I am appalled at what our Governments have already done to this once-great* nation. This interest, actually I understand it to be very active involvement in promoting this International Criminal Court by Alexander DOWNER and Darryl WILLIAMS, I believe is anti-Australian. I allege that our Federal Government should be on charges of treason as I believe that what they have intended is obviously NOT in the best interests of Australians as a group.

I cannot understand others referring to our Constitution with reverence. I think that these printed words are not worth the paper they printed on as "The Constitution" hasn't prevented our 'protector' from engaging in dialogue which could be used to undermine any Australian.
