

Australian Parliament
Joint Standing Committee on Migration
Submission No. 63

I would like to make a submission concerning my views on multiculturalism. While I believe that people from any country should be able to come to Australia and become Australian citizens, I do not believe that we should accept those who are not prepared to accept that we are a Christian Nation.

Many people come to Australia to live in freedom knowing that this is a Christian nation and they are sometimes escaping from oppression persecution and extremism in their own countries and only want to live in the freedom of our democratic nation.

Those that want to change our way of life into a repressive culture should not even be bothered applying to come to Australia and no Government in Australia should ever accept them. If this is what they want they should remain in their own country
