Dear Sir,

This submission is in response to the JSCEM's invitation for public comment as part of its Inquiry into the Conduct of the 2001 Federal Election.

I moved overseas in 1998 for a short term posting. I have endeavoured in that period to stay a participating voter. Unfortunately NOT one of my communications with the AEC via email, fax or letter has ever elicited a response. However this was also true when I was resident in Australia and noted some electoral infringements - I guess I am expecting too much of them.

Yours
Michael Williams
