Joint Standing Committee on Electoral Matters
Submission No. 64
Date Received 28/6/02
Secretary Shane

Dear Sir,

This submission is in response to the JSCEM's invitation for public comment as part of its Inquiry into the Conduct of the 2001 Federal Election.

The current method of overseas postal voiting is inefficient. Where I live in Michigan, there are very few Australian Citizens available to witness my applications and vote. Let alone a representative from the Queens Dominions.

A more streamline process would help. The experience I am gaining overseas will contribute to Australia upon my return, and I want to still have a voice in our elections.

Kind Regards,
Ian Moller
