Joint Standing Committee on Electoral Matters
Submission No. .... 209
Date Received .... 26/8/05
Secretary .....

Why can't The Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 be ammended TO fully allow the preferential VOTING system TO take effect when an elected MP Resigns OR dies OR elopes WITH his Secretary etc.

The 1941 Real Estate agents ACT has finally been updated so why NOT The 1918 Electoral ACT. The c'wealth Electoral officer would just program the Computer TO RECOUNT VOTES WITH The 2nd, 3rd, 4th etc preferences of The elected MPs VOTES flowing down The LINE UNTIL a new compromise candidate is elected for The TERM Remaining.

Alternatively The PARTY which loses an MP just Replaces him/her UNTIL The NEXT election. People are annoyed at The waste of Tax payers money ON New Elections before term d also Recently ON POLITICAL ADVERTISING & WILL show that at BY-elections.
