Dear Miss Minkin

I am afraid I am running out of patience with P. M. Howard.

He must do something about connecting the Constitution of Australia on Electoral matters.

As you know the A. E. C. collects as many enrolments it can just before an election.

The question is asked: Are you an Australian Citizen?

As I have explained I live on a public housing estate in Redfern and ethnically 1/3 would be Asian 1/3 European Prussian and 1/3 English speaking Australian.

For the Vietnamese lady living upstairs from me to be honest and answer NO would bring the Dept of Immigration to the door in days.

So she lies and says YES, goes to vote on Election day does not fill in form folds it puts it in the ballot box and the P.M. Howard takes that "INFORMAL" Vote.

My Great grand Father was Louis Burns of Burns Philp (B.P.)

His daughter Ellen married my grand father Rudd, brother to Kevin Rudds grand father Steele

Ellen is my grand mother, my mothers mother.

My mothers maiden name Helen Mary Lane Rudd, she married my Father Frank O'Reilly.

Are you beginning to understand?

I will sue the Liberal Party and expose it unless you return to the Constitution and demand proof of Citizenship on Election Day
Miss Whiskin

It is THE most serious crisis Constitutionally.

He concocted a court case about me in 2003 and fined me heavily.

He will not recognize Timor L'Est as an independent nation and refuses to pay for the oil he is taking out of their sea.

He even conspired to stop their free election in 1999 with the Indonesians, lots know this.

Australia has been thrown out of Timor L'Est and P.N.G.

because of resource theft and he is heavily invested in oil and mining companies.

You may tell Tony Smith I'm sorry but non compulsory vote won't do.

You must have proof of citizenship to vote - ask the United Nations.

So that really is my submission to this debate.

Yours Sincerely

Michael O'Reilly
