ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS ON NOTICE

Treasury Portfolio

9 November 2006

Submission No:51.2.....

Topic: Treasury's modelling capacity

Hansard Page: PA52

Dr EMERSON:

I think it is worth us knowing, as a committee, whether you [Treasury] can do this [provide an estimate of the cost to revenue of extending the FBT exemption for employer provided child care to all employers irrespective of whether the premises were onsite or offsite] or whether you cannot.

CHAIR—Do you want to take that on notice?.

Mr McCullough—We will certainly take on notice whether we can do it.

Answer:

Treasury has responsibility for costing tax related measures, including those related to child care and FBT.
