

in agreement to the at least 2,000 Covenants already signed by the last several years leadership of our country?

The figure, I quote I have been informed, has already been recorded in Hansard, so that there can be little doubt about that!

To remove ourselves ENTIRELY from the yoke and bondage of United Nations generally may be our only hope of surviving as an individual CHRISTIAN NATION.

I urge you to think on this and ACT.

Yours sincerely
(Mrs) Dalton H. Foreman

Submission No. 172.....

March 28th Mrs. D. L. Foreman
 Unit 35/68

To The Secretary
 Joint Standing Committee on Treaties

Park Terrace
 London
 W2 6S

I have written to our Prime Minister on this issue concerning the I.C.C., but unfortunately his letter did not reach the Committee, I am repeating the same—

I strongly urge the Committee to pass on this recommendation:—

DO NOT RATIFY this current covenant of The International Criminal Court.

It's about time, that our National Leaders, of whatever government Labour or Liberal, woke up to the fact that our Sovereign Rights, privileges and freedoms, are being continually ramped up with, and eroded, if not being TOTALLY destroyed by such moves as these.

When were we the people of Australia ever asked if we were

'Crimes against humanity' may be in the eyes of the beholder, as are 'fundamental rights' and 'persecution against any identifiable group ... on political, social, national, ethnic, cultural, religious, gender ... or other grounds?'

I would prefer to trust in the law and judicial system of Australia, rather than the capricious actions of bodies such as the U.N. has spawned.

Yours Faithfully,

J. J. Morrissey

J. J. MORRISSEY