

Commonwealth Environment Research Facilities program

CERF – key associations with universities
Research Hub	CERF investment (GST incl)	Host Organization	Key Research Partner Universities / Co-contributors
Environmental Economics	$7.0 million	Australian National University	University of NSW University of Western Australia Griffith University Central Queensland University
Applied Environment Decision Analysis (AEDA)	$7.6 million	University of Queensland	University of Melbourne Australian National University Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology
National Taxonomy	$6.0 million	Centre for Plant Biodiversity, CSIRO	La Trobe University Australian National University
Tropical Rivers and Coastal Knowledge (TRACK)	$8.8 million	Land and Water Australia	Griffith University, University of Western Australia Charles Darwin University
Landscape Logic: Linking Land and Water to Resource Condition	$8.8 million	University of Tasmania	Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology Australian National University University of Melbourne
Australian Centre for Applied Marine Mammal Science (ACAMMS)	$2.5 million	Australian Antarctic Division	ACAMMS funds projects undertaken at universities such as James Cook University; University of Queensland; and Southern Cross University
Prediction and Management of Australia's Marine Biodiversity	$6.6 million	University of Tasmania	Charles Darwin University; University of Queensland