

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Standing Committee on Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development & Local Government Committee

MEDIA RELEASE

Issued: 14 April 2009

Chair: Catherine King MP

Helping regional Australia respond to the global financial crisis

Burnie and Launceston public hearings and forums

The House of Representatives Regional Development Committee is conducting a series of public hearings as part of its inquiry into the impact of the global financial crisis on regional Australia.

The Committee's hearings will begin in Burnie and Launceston, Tasmania on the 20th and 21st of April. Public hearing participants have been invited by the Committee to discuss a range of issues including the economic and social impact of the crisis on their communities and ways in which the Commonwealth Government can assist regional Australia during this period. Members of the public are welcome to observe the proceedings.

At the end of each public hearing, the Committee has set aside an open session where members of the public can raise issues with the Committee relating to this inquiry.

The Committee will be visiting Tasmania before travelling to Victoria and Western Australia during the month of April. Further hearings will follow later in the year. Hearings in Tasmania are scheduled for:

- Burnie, Monday, 20 April 2009, Burnie Civic Centre, Wilmot Street; and
- Launceston, Tuesday, 21 April 2009, Hotel Grand Chancellor Chancellor Room #5, 29 Cameron Street.

The Burnie public hearing will be held between 9 am and 3.30 pm with the public forum to follow.

The Launceston public hearing will be held between 9 am and 2.00 pm with the public forum to follow.
