re Statute for Proposed International Criminal Court,

Dear Sir,

Our brief study of reliable information concerning the proposed International Criminal Court leads us to request that the Australian Government follows the lead of the U.S. Government in refusing to ratify this very dangerous proposition.

It is unthinkable that the peoples of a free and democratic Australia should be brought under the jurisdiction of United Nations which would seem to be controlled by socialist communistic Governments who dominate the agenda and who seem to have nothing better to do than work out ways and means of bringing the free peoples of the world under their control.

Yours faithfully,

Bruce Mitchell
