Dear Committee Members

It's only a small thing, but to highlight the lack of services in the area, that require me to drive to work is the fact there isn't even a red posting box in the whole of the Parliamentary Triangle/Barton/Forrest area. I have spent several lunchtimes looking for one. The free parking goes some way to compensate for the lack of services in the area.

You need to provide day to day services for people at work, this is why friends prefer working at FACS at Tuggeranong, free parking, and free access to a shopping centre across the road unlike this area.

Regards
