Office of the Hon Jason Clare MP

MINISTER FOR DEFENCE MATERIEL

27 September 2010

The Hon. Julia Gillard MP
Prime Minister
Parliament House
CANBERRA ACT 2600

Dear Prime Minister

I refer to the attached correspondence you have received from the Minister for Defence.

Before being sworn-in as Minister for Defence Materiel, I advised the Minister for Defence that my brother works for a company that indirectly provides products to the Australian Defence Force. As outlined in the Minister's letter, he sought advice from the Department on what controls should be put implemented to ensure no conflict of interest issues arise.

As you will see from the Minister's letter, the Department advised that it was unlikely I would be put in a position of conflict in respect of my Ministerial responsibilities. Nevertheless, to ensure no issues can arise, the Department and my office will implement the safeguards recommended by the Department as outlined in the Minister's letter.

These letters fulfil my obligation to you to disclose any potential conflict under the Standards of Ministerial Ethics. This matter will also be included on the Statement of Private Interests I submit to you and the Statement of Registrable Interests all Members are required to complete within 28 days of being sworn-in as a Member of Parliament.

Please let me know if there are any other steps I can take to address this potential issue to your satisfaction.

Yours sincerely

The Hon. Jason Clare MP
Minister for Defence Materiel

The Hon Julia Gillard MP
Prime Minister
Parliament House
CANBERRA ACT 2600

Dear Prime Minister

On 14 September 2010, before the swearing in of the Ministry, Mr Jason Clare MP, the Minister for Defence Materiel, advised me that he had identified a potential conflict of interest in his capacity as the Minister for Defence Materiel. This relates to his brother, Matthew Clare, who is the Queensland Sales Manager of MPM Marketing Services (MPM), a supplier of disposable food service products.

Following Mr Clare's advice, I asked the Secretary of the Department of Defence to advise me of the implications of this matter for Mr Clare and the Government.

I have now received that advice.

I am advised that MPM is a preferred supplier of Serco Sodexo, which is contracted to Defence (through its Serco Sodexo Defence Services joint venture). I am advised that Serco Sodexo is primarily contracted through the Defence Support Group (DSG) rather than the Defence Materiel Organisation (DMO), which is Minister Clare's prime area of involvement.

Based on a Defence Department review of contracts data since January 2008, MPM does not hold any contracts with Defence or DMO in its own right. I am advised that AusTender data indicates that, since January 2008, Defence has had 129 contracts with Serco Sodexo Defence Services, of which 28 are also recorded on the Interim Defence Contracts Register (required for contracts that exceed $100,000).

I am also advised that AusTender indicates that DMO entered into two contracts with Serco Sodexo Defence Services, one for the supply of milk products, the other for the repair of a damaged fence. I am advised there are no DMO contracts with Serco Sodexo Defence Services recorded on the Interim Defence Contracts Register.

The Secretary of the Department of Defence advises, therefore, that it is likely that Minister Clare will not be put in a position of conflict in respect of his portfolio responsibilities.

Nevertheless, the Secretary of Defence has proposed that the following arrangements be implemented to manage any actual or perceived conflict in relation to MPM:

- a. Defence and DMO will ensure that Minister Clare and his office are not involved in any significant procurement or contract related decision involving Sodexo or MPM (noting that procurements of low value or sensitivity would not be briefed to Ministers in any event); and
- b. in particular, Defence and DMO will ensure that Minister Clare is not sent or copied into any submission relating to such a procurement or contract (including submissions for noting) prior to a decision being advised/announced;

Additional to these measures, the Secretary of the Department of Defence will work with Mr Clare and his Ministerial office to ensure that:

- a. if any correspondence or representation is received by his Ministerial or Electorate Offices which relates to MPM or Sodexo, the material is forwarded to the Minister for Defence for action (if any), without reference to Minister Clare or his office;
- b. Minister Clare and his office not meet with MPM and Sodexo in relation to Defence related business;
- c. Minister Clare and his office and the Department of Defence maintain a record of any contact or correspondence, however inadvertent, with MPM or Sodexo that involves Minister Clare or his office; and
- d. Minister Clare and his office are careful in accepting gifts or hospitality, making site visits or attending functions that could be linked to MPM or Sodexo where an actual or perceived conflict could arise in relation to the matter.

The Secretary will ensure that these arrangements are also implemented for any other company in respect of which the Secretary or Minister Clare become aware that MPM is a supplier in relation to Defence business.

If that occurs, I will advise you accordingly.

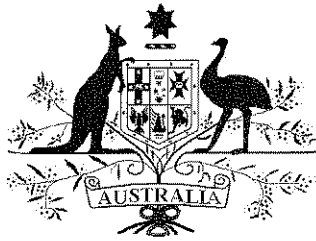

Minister Clare proposes to note his brother's commercial interests on his Parliamentary statement of registrable interests and to make reference in the Parliament to these matters.

Subject to your advice, I am satisfied with these arrangements and propose to implement them.

I have copied this letter to the Minister for Defence Materiel.

Yours sincerely

STEPHEN SMITH

Dear Mr Elder

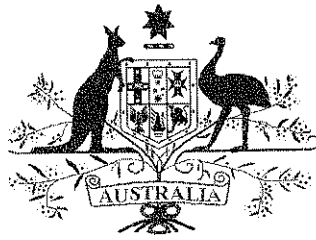

I wish to update my Register of Private Interests.

From 8 to 17 April 2011, the Member for Cook, the Member for Lyne and myself took a group of students and community leaders on the Sandakan Mateship Trek, a trek along the Sandakan Death March, in Sabah Borneo.

The Sandakan Death March is the worst atrocity in Australian Military History. In 1945 more than 1,000 prisoners of war were marched more than 200 kilometres from Sandakan to Ranau. Only six Australians survived.

It is a chapter of our history that is not well known and is not often told. That is why we organised this trek. It is important that what happened between Sandakan and Ranau, so many years ago, is not forgotten.

Her Excellency Marie Bashir is the Patron of the Mateship Trek.

The trek was sponsored by businesses, local clubs and individuals with no cost burden to the Commonwealth of Australia.

The major sponsors of the Sandakan Mateship Trek were BHP Billiton, Interlink Roads, Clubs Australia, Bankstown RSL, Bankstown Sports Club, Linfox, Master Builders Association, Generation One, CFMEU, Australian Health Insurance Association and Publishing and Broadcasting Limited – Channel 9.

The following organisations and individuals also made contributions toward the trek:

- Major General Michael Jeffrey
- Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu
- Sabah Tourism
- Accor Hotels
- Stockland
- Westfield
- Singapore Airlines
- Qantas Airlines
- REX Airlines
- GTi Media
- Parker and Partners
- Infrastructure Partnerships Australia
- Sydney Airport Corporation

I paid my own expenses for the trek, accommodation and discounted airfares.
One night of accommodation was provided by Accor Hotels.

From 15 to 25 April 2013, the Member for Cook and myself travelled with a group of young people to Papua New Guinea on the Mateship Trek, along the Black Cat Track between Wau and Salamaua.

Costs for the young trekkers were supported by businesses, local clubs and individuals with no cost burden to the Commonwealth of Australia.

The major sponsors were Bankstown Sports Club and Channel 9, with other supporters including Interlink Roads, Bankstown RSL, Linfox and Pickles Auctions.

The following businesses and individuals also made contributions toward fundraising for Soldier On and toward covering costs for the young trekkers to participate:

- Deloitte
- Qantas
- Qantas Defence
- Thales
- Northrup Grumman
- G4S Australia
- International Health and Medical Services
- Sentia Media
- Henroth Investments
- Kathmandu
- Mr Alf Moufarrige

I paid all of my own expenses for the Trek, including accommodation and airfares. I received a complimentary upgrade on Air New Guinea flight PX005 from Port Moresby to Brisbane on 25 April 2013.
