Dear Sir,

This submission is in response to the JSCEM's invitation for public comment as part of its Inquiry into the Conduct of the 2001 Federal Election.

I am an Australian who has been living in Germany for many years. I am active in Australian business and have a close involvement with Australia. Unfortunately I am not able to vote because I have been overseas for so many years. I believe it is very important to allow overseas residents to participate in this fundamental right of all citizens: voting!
