

Submission No. 71

9th February 2001 .

Dear Sir ,

Re : To the U.N Plans for an International Criminal Court (ICC) .

I am totally opposed to any foreign power to rule or judge on anyone in Australia .

Deuteronomy 19: 15

One witness is not enough to convict a man accused of any crime or offence he may have committed . A matter must be established by the evidence of 2 or 3 witnesses .

One important principle in common law is the separation of powers :

A judge cannot also be a prosecutor , and the jury is separate again . This new proposed ICC law should not be decided by a few politicians , but put to a Public Referendum .

Yours Faithfully

Mr Kevin Conners
