Dear Mr Slipper,

LACK of LAW ENFORCEMENT INTEGRITY of APRA and ASIC

Re: (3) AUDITORS MOORE STEPHENS re ACR CORPORATE COLLAPSE and REWARD INSURANCE LTD.

I refer to previous correspondence including my letter of 22nd August 2007 in connection with the conduct of Murray Nugent in connection to Reward Insurance Ltd and now enclose for the attention of members of your Committee copies of the following recent letters from Peter Neil to:

(1) WA ASIC Regional Commissioner, Angus Dale-Jones concerning the failures of APRA approved auditor Moore Stephens, concerning Reward Insurance Ltd financial accounts (email dated 12th September 2007).

(2) Minister for Federal Police Senator David Johnston (emailed dated 14th September 2007), concerning the knowledge of some APRA staff that the financial accounts of Reward Insurance Ltd signed off by APRA approved auditor Moore Stephens for year ending 30th June 2001 were hopelessly incorrect.

In three States namely WA, Qld, NSW we have "Corruption" Commissions concerned with law enforcement integrity to ensure that State regulatory authorities do not turn a blind eye and deaf ear to serious criminal offences committed by the criminals in our society.

Since late last year we have an Australian Commission for Law Enforcement Integrity to cover the Australian Federal Police and the Australian Crime Commission.

I respectfully urge, in the interests of the vast majority of law abiding voters, that members of your Committee concerned with Law Enforcement Integrity strongly support the Australian Commission for Law Enforcement Integrity to now also cover APRA and ASIC.

Yours Sincerely
Berryl Glasson
