Subject: Inquiry into the conduct of the 2004 Federal Election

Dear Sir/Madam

I advise that Council considered the matter of 2004 Federal Election and confirm that constituents reported delays in receiving postal voting papers.

Council feels that the expediency of the postal system needs to be taken into account. Simply extra time is required to receive and return a postal vote to the outback Queensland resident.

Present options for voting i.e. in person or postal are acceptable to Council.

Yours faithfully

George Frangos
