

Parliamentary Joint Committee on Corporations and Financial Services

Attorney-General's Department

Hearing date: 13 December 2022

Question date: 22 December 2022

Deborah O'Neill asked the following question:

5. Does AGD, Treasury or some other Commonwealth entity collate data about both corporate and personal insolvencies?

The response to the question is as follows:

The Attorney-General's Department does not collate data about either corporate or personal insolvencies.

The Australian Financial Security Authority (AFSA) publishes data on both personal insolvencies and the Personal Property Securities Register (PPSR): Statistics | Australian Financial Security Authority \(afsa.gov.au\).

The Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) publishes data on corporate insolvencies: Insolvency statistics | ASIC.
