My wife and I were guests of Shane Mattiske in the Newcastle Jets Chairman's lounge, the stress of missing two penalties was too much and forced me to break my after Christmas diet by indulging the magnificent half time party pies while witnessing Apostolos Stamatelopoulos claw back a draw from the Melbourne Victory in the 88th minute. Unfortunately the Jet's were unable to break the Victory's amazing 15 game unbeaten streak this season. I hope we do better against the Mariners!

Australia Post employs more than 63,000 people of all ages, genders and abilities, and in financial year 2023 they delivered more than 2.5 billion items around the country and had more than 202 million visits from members of the Australian community to their Post Office network. It's this network and planned reductions to it in my local community which was the subject of discussion at a dinner with members of the Australia Post board, other local representatives and Hunter based customers at the wonderful EARP Distillery Co.

I had a three course meal starting with the wonderful Kingfish Ceviche that I thought was delicious followed by the main of Medium Rare Steak accompanied by chat potatoes and beans. Dessert was a Chocolate Delice. these were served on an alternate drop system and I was very happy to not be asked to swap. In the absence of Pepsi max at the bar I also had a number of cans of it's poor cousin Coke no sugar.

11. Gifts	Thanks to Spotify, Australian music artists were discovered by first time listeners more than 2.7 billion times globally in 2023, with royalties generated by Australian artists up 10% over last year to nearly $275 million. To promote Spotify's Loud&Clear Spotlight on Australia, they came to Parliament House. I was on chamber duty so not able to see Tones perform but I used the opportunity to talk to industry experts about ideas to better promote live performances and artists from my local area trying to breakout (Such as the young Hip Hop Artists that came to perform at the Station Hotel at Hamilton in a gig headlined by Chill Cheney). I was also gifted a fantastic 220mm long wooden drumstick pen (only one though so no desktop drum solo's) a 115mm x 180mm Spotify branded black notepad and a delicious 215-gram jar of Australian made Kakadu Plum Co. I had arranged to meet with my former boss and colleagues from the Port of Newcastle in Canberra over dinner to discuss the exciting progress the Port is making to expand their business and make it easier for farmers and primary producers to access port facilities and new export markets, however my flight to Canberra that evening was delayed an hour and a half, just long enough to mean the restaurant would be finished service by the time I landed and dinner was cancelled. Fortuitously there were two members of the PoN delegation booked on the same delayed flight who saw me looking to satisfy my hunger with the fast food options on offer at Newcastle airport. So instead we decided to have an impromptu food hall dinner as a plan B to the BlackFire booking, I ordered a BBQ Box meal from Red Rooster which I upsized to large for the extra Pepsi Max and chips but I didn't end up eating the mash potato. The PoN staff ordered meals at the same time as I and then paid for all meals, then joined me to talk work while we enjoyed our delicious chicken feast – cost approx $22.50
