Question:

Senator RHIANNON: I will come back to that to get a bit more information. Are the verification reports by IV&V and IBM publicly available?

Mr Courtney: I am not sure if the IV&V reports have been released. I will have to take that on notice. The IBM reports have not because they were not directly related to the count of the votes.

Senator RHIANNON: The IBM, you know, has not been released and the IV&V you will take on notice.

Mr Courtney: I will.

Answer:

The IV&V report is not publicly available.

A redacted version of the IBM report was released under a freedom of information request and is available on the AEC website. A correction to Hansard has been made to reflect this.
