Topic: CASA - Medical conditions - Reported incidents due to transient ischaemic attacks

Senator Malarndirri McCarthy asked:

Senator ROBERTS: Have there been any similar incidents where the reported cause was a TIA or transient ischaemic attack—a minor stroke?

Mr Marcelja: We haven't had any incidents reported to us of that nature at all, in relation to COVID vaccination. We'll check, on notice, but, to my knowledge, we've had no incidents reported to us.

Answer:

There have been no aviation safety incidents reported to the Civil Aviation Safety Authority involving transient ischemic attack (TIA or 'minor stroke').
