Topic: Compliance Committee for Sydney Airport – departmental documents detailing decision to not to instate the compliance committee

Senator Bridget McKenzie asked:

Senator MCKENZIE: Just on that, I would like you to table or supply the committee with internal documents to the department showing when and how that decision to not comply with the act was made.

Ms Purvis-Smith: We'll take that on notice.

Answer:

The last appointments to the Slot Compliance Committee expired in 2020. The Department of Infrastructure, Regional Development, Communications and the Arts has not located a record of a decision to not instate the committee. The department is in the process of arranging new appointments to the committee as provided for under Section 66 of the Sydney Airport Demand Management Act 1997.
