Senator Duniam asked:

Senator DUNIAM: Okay. Just on the development of standards, the working group—from memory, there were two parts to it, like a bigger group and a smaller group. Mr Tregurtha: That's correct, Senator.

Senator DUNIAM: Yes. Have we got a list of the names of the participants in that group? Mr Tregurtha: I can get you a list on notice. I'm happy to take that on notice.

Answer:

- A targeted working group has been established to inform the development of National Environmental Standards for Matters of National Environmental Significance, environmental offsets and regional planning. This working group includes stakeholders that represent a range of perspectives and experts with specific knowledge relevant to the standards under development. The names of member organisations are at Attachment A.
- To further test the draft standards, the Department of Climate Change, Energy, the Environment and Water has engaged a broader reference group of over 50 participants with a range of interests, including First Nations groups, business, environment and community groups and scientists. The names of member organisations are at Attachment B.
