PRIVATE MEMBERS' BUSINESS*Notices given for Tuesday, 28 May 2002

*1 MS ROXON: To move—That this House:

- (1) notes that members of the Australian-Chilean community who were victims of suffering, torture, expulsion and exile at the hands of the Pinochet regime in Chile now receive a “pension of mercy” from the Chilean Government as a reparation for their suffering;
- (2) expresses concern that these members of the Australian-Chilean community have their entitlement to an Australian pension affected by the Chilean payments while other people receiving similar payments, such as victims of the Holocaust who receive compensation from Germany or Austria “as victims of National Socialist Persecution”, have these payments exempt for the purposes of income testing;
- (3) recognises that these Australian-Chileans make a significant social and economic contribution to the Australian community and should be eligible for equal treatment and access to social security payments as other Australians; and
- (4) calls on the Government to give those members of the Australian-Chilean community fair treatment by introducing legislation to exempt the Chilean “pensions of mercy” from the income test for Australian pensions similar to the exemption for other compensation payments in paragraphs (n) and (p) of subsection 8(8) of the Social Security Act 1991. (Notice given 27 May 2002.)

*2 MR ANDREN: To move—That this House:

- (3) recognises that trust between indigenous and non-indigenous Australians is vital to solve many of our country’s problems, such as land degradation;
- (4) recognises that for trust between indigenous and non-indigenous people to grow, Australians need to look at our history through indigenous eyes;
- (5) urges all Australian communities to come together, listen to each other, and develop initiatives to overcome prejudice and race-based injustice on a local level; and
- (6) urges the Parliament to support the struggle for reconciliation by implementing the recommendations of reports such as Aboriginal Deaths in Custody and Bringing Them Home. (Notice given 27 May 2002.)
