 - (1) recalls the key role played by Australia's Chifley Government in developing the Geneva Convention on Genocide and reaffirms Australia's commitment to international treaties that aim to punish those who commit crimes against humanity, war crimes and other major human rights violations;
 - (2) notes that at present Australia has no domestic legislation enabling the prosecution in Australian courts of the following international crimes committed outside Australia by people who subsequently settled here:
 - (a) Genocide (the Genocide Convention Act 1949 did not make genocide a crime under Australian law; it only approved ratification of the Convention);
 - (b) Crimes Against Humanity (other than torture after 1988 and hostage taking after 1989); and

- (c) War Crimes committed in the context of non-international armed conflicts anywhere in the world at any time, or committed in the context of an international conflict prior to 1957 (except Europe 1939-1945); and

- †3 MR RUDD: To move—That this House:

- †4 MR BILLSON: To move—That this House:
- (1) recognises:
 - (a) Taiwan is a thriving democracy of 23 million people, with a world-class health-care system that has contributed to one of the highest life expectancy in Asia, very low maternal and infant mortality rates, successful disease eradication and preventative health programs; and
 - (b) Taiwan's strong commitment to international health security through provision of aid funding and expertise to developing countries in the form of permanent medical assistance programs and emergency response medical teams;
 - (2) notes that:
 - (a) the experience of SARS in 2003 shows the vital importance of seamless global coordination in responding to international health emergencies;
 - (b) Taiwan's containment and management efforts during the SARS epidemic in 2003 were severely hampered by its inability to access the expertise and coordination of the WHO, including the WHO's Global Outbreak Alert and Response Network (GOARN);
 - (c) the World Health Assembly's Rules of Procedure formally allow, through several mechanisms, for the participation of observers, as distinct from states, in the activities of the organization without involving issues of sovereignty as evidenced by the role of current observers including Palestine, the Holy See, the Order of Malta, and the International Red Cross and Red Crescent;
 - (d) support for Taiwan's previous bids has come from many other governments, including the US, in the May 2003 Summit of the World Health Assembly in Geneva;
 - (e) there is considerable public support of Taiwan's participation in the WHO from major professional medical organizations; and
 - (f) last year a private Members' motion was moved in the Australian House of Representatives, supporting Taiwan in its 2003 bid to gain observer status in the WHA; and
 - (3) supports:
 - (a) Taiwan's case before the WHA, a specialised health agency of the UN, based on scientific, humanitarian, and health security considerations; and
 - (b) Taiwan's participation in the WHA as an Observer, allowing it as a health entity to contribute further to the international community, bringing its population of 23 million to within WHO protection against future health emergencies of the type of SARS. - (1) notes that in 1995 the NSW Government handed over 118km of substandard roads to Dungog Shire Council, without financial support to maintain, fix or repair those extra roads;
 - (2) notes that this was an unrealistic shift in responsibilities, particularly for a small council that does not have the revenue or population to maintain this length of road on top of its existing responsibilities;
 - (3) recognises that this shift resulted in Dungog Council having financial responsibility for the maintenance of roads that have a total length longer than the combined responsibilities of regional roads in Newcastle, Maitland and Lake Macquarie shires;
 - (4) condemns the NSW Government for failing to properly compensate the council for this extra burden in road funding for almost nine years, which has resulted in Dungog Council going into a downward spiral in maintenance;

- (3) the Government has consistently failed to heed the advice of the Winemakers' Federation of Australia of the threat the Wine Equalisation Tax poses to small wineries; and

 - (4) notes that while the incidence of brain tumours is ranked 13th in a list of all cancers in Australia, they rank 4th in a table of the total number of person years of life lost (PYLL) as a result of deaths attributed to cancer;
 - (5) notes that, as yet, there does not appear to be any identifiable single cause of primary brain tumours, nor is there an efficient, safe, and cost effective method of screening for them, nor are they necessarily preventable by changes in diet or lifestyle, although these may be useful in alleviating distress and symptoms; and
 - (6) calls on the Federal Government to recognise:
 - (a) the need for a specialised response to the challenge caused by brain tumours, particularly in the areas of patient and carer support; and

- (1) supports the wider spread, across every category of company and to all their employees, of substantial employee share ownership exercised through the agency of Employee Share Ownership Plans (ESOPs);
 - (2) notes that the existing legislative and regulatory regime inhibits the spread of employee ownership especially to unlisted and private companies chiefly on account of the failure of Corporations Law to provide a disclosure regime proper to ESOPs;
 - (3) notes that those employees who do benefit from ESOPs are actively discouraged from developing substantial holdings in the employers' companies by tax provisions which favour token employee ownership (through a tax exempt share plan) over the acquisitions of larger share holding (through a tax deferred share plan);
 - (4) acknowledges that properly designed ESOPs provide, importantly, a mechanism by means of which employees become co-owners of the businesses for which they work and, thereby, more deeply engaged in, and committed to, the free enterprise system of wealth creation and distribution;
 - (5) acknowledges that ESOPs also provide an important pre-retirement savings vehicle through which families and individuals can save for obligations which arise prior to their retirement;
 - (6) recognises that ESOPs belong to a spectrum of pre-retirement savings vehicles so far undeveloped in Australia yet urgently called for by national demographic and social realities;
 - (7) calls for targeted reforms of tax and corporate law to ensure that ESOPs can easily spread to all employees in all companies and provide these employees with a mechanism capable of delivering them substantial (rather than token) ownership of the companies in which they work;
 - (8) calls for the development of practical regulations to ensure adequate disclosure and investor protection measures for all ESOPs;
 - (9) calls for the introduction of a new pre-retirement savings vehicle modelled on the United Kingdom Individual Savings Account to provide a comparable means of making medium-term savings for those employees who cannot benefit from an ESOP.
