Mr Speaker,

The Senate transmits to the House of Representatives the following resolution which was agreed to by the Senate this day:

(1) That where a bill:

(a) is first introduced in the House of Representatives after 1 October 1993; or

- (b) is received by the Senate from the House of Representatives after 29 October 1993; or
  - (c) is first introduced in the Senate by a minister after 29 October 1993, and a motion is moved for the second reading of the bill, debate on that motion shall be taken to be adjourned upon the conclusion of the speech of the Senator moving the motion, and the resumption of the debate shall be made an order of the day for the first day of sitting in 1994, without any question being put.
- (2) That, immediately after debate on a motion for the second reading of a bill is adjourned in accordance with paragraph (1), or following the giving of notices on a subsequent day, a motion may be moved without notice to refer that bill to a standing committee for inquiry and report by a day not later than the first day of sitting in 1994.

KERRY SIBRAA
President

The Senate,
Canberra, 18 August 1993

Ordered—That the message be taken into consideration forthwith.

Mr Keating (Prime Minister) moved—

- (1) That, in relation to Message No. 52 received from the Senate, this House resolves that:
  - (a) the Senate order is a completely unwarranted interference by the Senate in the business of this House;
  - (b) the Senate is a house of review and has no place dictating to this House, the house of government, on the conduct of its business;
  - (c) the order of the Senate is a gross discourtesy by the Senate to the people of Australia in that the order demonstrates a presumptuous desire not to allow the house of the people to have its proper control over the management of its business; and
  - (d) the public interest is not served by the effect of the Senate order, which is to curtail proper debate on legislation in this House by forcing the Government to progress legislation rapidly through the House in order to meet a Senate imposed deadline; and
- (2) That the House send a message to the Senate conveying the terms of this resolution.

Debate ensued.

Mr Howard moved, as an amendment—That all words after “That” be omitted with a view to substituting the following words: “this House condemns the Government’s mismanagement of the affairs of the House of Representatives and resolves that the sittings of the House of Representatives be extended so as to allow more adequate time for intelligent debate and scrutiny of bills which come before the House”.

Debate continued.

Closure: Mr Beazley (Leader of the House) moved—That the question be now put.

Question—That the question be now put—put and passed.

And the question—That the words proposed to be omitted stand part of the question—being accordingly put—
