Complaint of breach—Matter raised by—
Bevis, Mr—
Speaker stated that he would consider the matter and report to the House at a later time, 1585
Speaker stated that he endorsed the views of his predecessors to the effect that, as a general rule, House should not attempt to intervene in arrangements made within political parties and as no Member had claimed to have been intimidated or subject to improper interference he was not prepared to allow precedence to a motion on the matter, 1587
Charles, Mr—Standing Committee on Employment, Education and Training had considered the matter and did not request the Committee of Privileges to conduct an investigation, 2109

Crean, Mr—

Speaker stated that he would consider the matter and report to the House, 3198

Speaker stated that he had examined the paper tabled during question time by the Leader of the Opposition, however, it was not clear what the status of the paper was or what it established. Accordingly the Speaker was not satisfied that prima facie evidence such as would cause him to allow precedence to a motion had been presented, 3200

Entsch, Mr—

Speaker stated that he would await the results of the committee's deliberations, 2199

Matter referred to Committee of Privileges, 2487

Mr Entsch informed the House that the committee had examined the matter and considered that the disclosures had constituted a substantial interference in the work of the committee and that a prima facie case of breach of privilege existed; Speaker stated that he would consider the matter and inform the House at a later time, 2462

Hawker, Mr—

Speaker stated that he would await the results of the committee's deliberations, 2067

Standing Committee on Financial Institutions and Public Administration had considered the matter but did not seek further action on the matter, 2110

Holding, Mr—

Speaker stated that he would consider the matter and report to the House, 339

Speaker expressed his view that Members must take responsibility for their actions in the House. The Speaker stated that it was his understanding that when a Member uses the privileges of the House to make allegations and it later emerges that the Member was in error, the Member would be considered to have a duty to withdraw and apologise. The Speaker further stated that the House may consider that it was a matter of regret that this course was not followed in this case, 360

Melham, Mr—

Speaker stated that he would consider the matter and report to the House, 2110, 2123

Speaker stated that it was not clear that in fact either document would be covered by provisions of relevant standing orders dealing with unauthorised disclosure of documents and, and that accordingly, in his opinion a prima facie case had not been made, 2155

Speaker stated that under current law if contempt or breach of privilege had been committed it would be because an action or actions amounted to or were intended or likely to amount to an improper interference with free performance by committee of its authority or functions (section 4 of the Parliamentary Privileges Act). Speaker further stated that he was unable to form opinion that a prima facie case of contempt had been made out and he did not consider papers presented to the House constituted evidence of improper interference, 2155

Sinclair, Mr—

Speaker stated that he would consider the matter and report to the House, 2503

Speaker stated that he did not think there had been substantial interference in a Member's duties and he was not prepared to allow precedence to a motion on the matter, 2504

Taylor, Mr—

Speaker stated that he would consider the matter and report to the House, 2100

Speaker stated that the law of parliamentary privilege enables the House to protect

Members from improper interference with the free performance of their duties as Members. The Speaker quoted from the letter and stated that unfortunately at times Members are subject to such extravagant and irrational representations and concluded that a prima facie case of improper interference had been made out and he was willing to allow precedence to a motion on the matter, 2109

Theophanous, Dr—

Speaker stated that he would consider the matter and report to the House, 791

Speaker stated that he had met with Dr Theophanous, that he had examined the letter, which was irrational and offensive, but it was anonymous and in the circumstances he would not allow precedence to a motion on the matter, 803
