PP

Parliamentary Paper. Parliamentary papers are those papers which have been presented to either House of the Parliament and which have been ordered to be printed or to be made a Parliamentary Paper. From 1901 until 1967 Parliamentary papers were numbered and bound according to sessions. References are to number/session/page (of paper, not volume), e.g. PP 32 (1964–66) 27. Since 1967 papers have been numbered consecutively for each year and bound and indexed in annual volumes, and are therefore referred to by year not session.

Prior to 1963 certain papers relating solely to either the House or Senate were designated H of R or S and (prior to 1961) were published only in the Votes and Proceedings or Journals volumes respectively, e.g. H of R 1 (1962–63) 43 and S 2 (1954–55) 24.

A sessional index to all papers presented in either House is included in the sessional volumes of the Votes and Proceedings. The First Consolidated Index to the Papers Presented to Parliament 1901–1949 is PP 100 (1954–55). PP 375 (1964–66) comprises a General Index to the papers presented to Parliament between 1950 and 1961.
