Australian Federal Police Act 1979—Copies of—Ministerial direction, dated 25 February 1999.
Ministerial direction (Supplementary), dated 27 September 2000.

4 TAXATION—HOUSEHOLD DEBT—FINANCE—EXECUTIVE REMUNERATION—ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

Senator Conroy moved—that the Senate take note of the answers given by the Minister for Revenue and Assistant Treasurer (Senator Coonan) and the Minister for Finance and Administration (Senator Minchin) to questions without notice asked by Senators Webber, Kirk and Conroy today relating to taxation, to household debt and to remuneration for chief executive officers.

Debate ensued.

Question put and passed.

5 FOREIGN AFFAIRS—INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT—ANSWER TO QUESTION

Senator Greig moved—That the Senate take note of the answer given by the Minister for Justice and Customs (Senator Ellison) to a question without notice asked by Senator Greig today relating to judicial nominations for the International Criminal Court.

Question put and passed.

6 PETITION

The following petition, lodged with the Clerk by Senator Stott Despoja, was received:

From 1 067 petitioners, requesting that the Senate support the Australian Democrats' motion opposing Australia's involvement in pre-emptive military action or a first strike against Iraq and call on the Government to pursue diplomatic initiatives towards disarmament in Iraq, and worldwide.

7 NOTICES

Notices of motion:

The Chair of the Employment, Workplace Relations and Education References Committee (Senator George Campbell): To move on the next day of sitting—That the time for the presentation of reports of the Employment, Workplace Relations and Education References Committee be extended as follows:

- (a) education of students with disabilities—to 5 December 2002; and
- (b) small business employment—to 12 December 2002. (general business notice of motion no. 219)

Senator Mason: To move on the next day of sitting—That the Joint Standing Committee on Electoral Matters be authorised to hold public meetings during the sittings of the Senate on Monday, 11 November 2002, from 7.15 pm, and on Monday, 2 December 2002, from 7.15 pm, to take evidence for the committee's inquiry into the conduct of the 2001 federal election. (general business notice of motion no. 220)

The Chair of the Employment, Workplace Relations and Education References Committee (Senator George Campbell): To move on the next day of sitting—That the following matters be referred to the Employment, Workplace Relations and Education References Committee for inquiry and report by the last sitting day in June 2003:

- (a) areas of skills shortage and labour demand in different areas and locations, with particular emphasis on projecting future skills requirements;
- (b) the effectiveness of current Commonwealth, state and territory education, training and employment policies, and programs and mechanisms for meeting current and future skills needs, and any recommended improvements;
- (c) the effectiveness of industry strategies to meet current and emerging skill needs;
- (d) the performance and capacity of Job Network to match skills availability with labour-market needs on a regional basis and the need for improvements;
- (e) strategies to anticipate the vocational education and training needs flowing from industry restructuring and redundancies, and any recommended improvements; and

- (f) consultation arrangements with industry, unions and the community on labour-market trends and skills demand in particular, and any recommended appropriate changes.

Senator Ridgeway: To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate—

- (a) notes that:
  - (i) Mrs Valerie Linow, an Aboriginal woman from New South Wales, was removed from her family at the age of 2 years and placed in children's homes in Bomaderry and then Cootamundra,
  - (ii) at the age of 14, Mrs Linow was placed on a rural property in New South Wales by the Aborigines Welfare Board and employed as a domestic worker,
  - (iii) Mrs Linow is the first member of the stolen generations to be awarded monetary compensation for the psychological trauma she suffered as a result of sexual assaults that occurred when she was employed as a domestic worker, and
  - (iv) by awarding Mrs Linow compensation of $35 000, the New South Wales Victims Compensation Tribunal is distinguished as the first judicial body in Australia's history to award compensation to a member of the stolen generations for harm that occurred while in state care;
- (b) acknowledges that the success of Mrs Linow's case may give hope to other members of the stolen generations who suffered a similar fate and validate their conviction that the harm done to them does warrant and deserve compensation;
- (c) regrets that the Government has provided members of the stolen generations no alternative to the adversarial, costly and protracted court system for the resolution of their claims, with the result that many claims will continue to be defeated because of the applicants' inability to produce the necessary documentation or the witnesses to substantiate their claims; and
- (d) calls on the Government to:
  - (i) reconsider its opposition to the establishment of a more humane and compassionate response, particularly for those members of the stolen generations who have suffered harm as a consequence of the act of removal, and
  - (ii) establish a reparations tribunal for the stolen generations, as recommended in the Legal and Constitutional References Committee report on the stolen generations, Healing: A Legacy of Generations, the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission, the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Commission, the Public Interest Advocacy Centre and the National Sorry Day Committee. (general business notice of motion no. 221)

Senator Allison: To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate—

- (a) notes that:
  - (i) the Gembrook Primary School has for the past 100 years had only two permanent classrooms, even when the school population has been around 300,
  - (ii) the Gembrook Primary School population has been around 170 children for the past 3 years and is increasing each year,

- (iii) the Victorian State Government's school infrastructure policy for the ratio of permanent and portable classrooms is 80:20,
- (iv) the Victorian State Government does not provide funding for the maintenance of portable classrooms, instead replacing them when the repair bill is more than 5 per cent of the cost of replacement, and
- (v) as a result the Gembrook Primary School, receives no maintenance funding for most of its classrooms;
- (b) calls on the Victorian State Government to provide Gembrook Primary School with four new permanent classrooms, bringing the capacity of its permanent classrooms to 150;
- (c) recognises that there are many thousands of students housed in inadequate portable classrooms Australia-wide; and
- (d) calls on the Federal Government to provide more funds for urgently needed, basic capital works in government schools. (general business notice of motion no. 222)

The Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry (Senator Troeth): To move on the next day of sitting—That the provisions of paragraphs (5) to (7) of standing order 111 not apply to the Workplace Relations Amendment (Fair Dismissal) Bill 2002 [No. 2], allowing it to be considered during this period of sittings.

Consideration of legislation—Statement of reasons for introduction and passage of the Workplace Relations Amendment (Fair Dismissal) Bill 2002 [No. 2] in the 2002 spring sittings.

Senator Crossin: To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate—

- (a) notes the signing of the 1997 National Communiqué to Progress Indigenous Justice Issues by the Northern Territory Government confirming its commitment to reducing the over-representation of Indigenous people in all stages of the criminal justice system;
- (b) recognises that the 1997 communiqué commits all signatories to addressing customary law and its relationship with the criminal justice system;
- (c) notes that, in accordance with Australian and international law, Aboriginal customary law should be recognised consistently with universally-recognised human rights and fundamental freedoms; and
- (d) acknowledges that the Northern Territory Government is working in partnership with Indigenous people in moving to conduct an inquiry into Aboriginal customary law and its relationship with the criminal justice system. (general business notice of motion no. 223)

Senator Nettle: To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate—

- (a) notes the rally in Sydney on 22 October 2002 of the Korean Solidarity for Human Rights Group, which is demanding an apology for the imprisonment in high security jails of two Korean asylum seekers who were neither convicted nor charged with any offence;

- (b) condemns the transfer of asylum seekers into the regular prison system as contrary to the strong tradition in Australia of, and legal commitment to, civil and human rights that protect individuals from imprisonment without conviction or charge; and
- (c) calls on the Government to end this practice immediately, bringing Australia back in line with commitments under the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. (general business notice of motion no. 224)

Intention to withdraw: Senator Greig, pursuant to standing order 78, gave notice of his intention, at the giving of notices on the next day of sitting, to withdraw business of the Senate notice of motion no. 1 standing in his name for 24 October 2002 for the disallowance of the Therapeutic Goods (Charges) Amendment Regulations 2002 (No. 1), as contained in Statutory Rules 2002 No. 144 and made under the Therapeutic Goods (Charges) Act 1989.

Order of the day read for the adjourned debate on the motion of the Parliamentary Secretary to the Treasurer (Senator Ian Campbell)—That this bill be now read a second time.

Debate resumed.

Senator Carr moved the following amendment:

At the end of the motion, add “but the Senate condemns the Government for:

- (a) failing to develop comprehensive transition strategies to assist young people, thereby abandoning at least 205 300 15 to 19 year olds, placing them at risk of not making a successful transition from school to work;
- (b) failing to keep its election promise to young people to provide a comprehensive response in the 2002 Budget to the Youth Pathways Report;
- (c) failing to address youth unemployment, which is on the rise;
- (d) refusing to acknowledge the substantial adverse impact that the Government’s welfare reform initiatives are having on TAFE;
- (e) failing to take a holistic approach to the needs of Indigenous Australians, resulting in a decline in participation in courses leading to a qualification; and
- (f) the Minister’s double standards in espousing concern for the welfare of young Australians but failing to take any meaningful action to invest in their training needs, and further notes that state and territory Labor governments have made significant achievements in the implementation of vocational education and training in schools while the Commonwealth has refused to provide growth funding, making the Labor states and territories the leaders in this field”.

Debate ensued.

Question—That the amendment be agreed to—put and passed.

Main question, as amended, put and passed.

Bill read a second time.

No amendments to the bill were circulated and no senator required that it be considered in committee.

The Minister for Communications, Information Technology and the Arts (Senator Alston) moved—That this bill be now read a third time.

Debate ensued.

Question put and passed.

Bill read a third time.
