Dear Sir,

This submission is in response to the JSCEM's invitation for public comment as part of its Inquiry into the Conduct of the 2001 Federal Election. I am an Australian citizen, I will always be an Australian, it is the country of my birth and the essence of myself. I live overseas for many reasons not the least of which is opportunity. I would love to be able to have the same opportunities at home and part of that would be made possible by the ability to participate in the election process of our government. I want to be a continuing part of the development of Australia. I want to be able to take all of the experiences I have here and apply them in a better way at home. I want to keep Australia, Australian. Please help me to do that by helping me to vote. Thanks

Susie LeBlanc
