Canberra ACT 2600

Dear Sir,

This submission is in response to the JSCEM's invitation for public comment as part of its Inquiry into the Conduct of the 2001 Federal Election.

I am an Australian and have travelled extensively over the last 30 years. It is necessary as part of my job as a computer professional in the airline industry. There have been so many occasions that I have been unable to vote in Federal elections that I no longer register to vote. I move frequently and often live in hotels and temporary premises for months both in Australia and overseas.

I would like you to amend the legislation so that as a citizen and a tax payer I have a voice.
