

Submission No 019

RECEIVED<sup>SM</sup>
09 OCT 2009

BY: LACA

House Standing Committee on Legal and Constitutional Affairs

Inquiry on the Rules for Referendums.

There are no compelling reasons why there should be any changes in the Rules for Referendums. Most importantly, the YES and NO cases should be prepared by Members of Parliament. These are the people we elect to take responsibility for important issues like this, and they must not be allowed to opt out when there is important work to do.

Gillian Lord