I have worked at Tafe for 15 years and I have seen thousands of young girls and boys become hairdressers and have a wonderful career as a result. My two boys are going through Tafe at the moment and they both love their trade and get so much help every week from their lecturers. There are many kids who are not cut out for Uni and other institutions and Tafe fills in that gap.

Tafe is so important and should never be underestimated, please don't do what they have done over east to our tafe system
