

Status Report on Progress of FAD recommendations from the 1993 Federal Election onwards

RECOMMENDATION	SOURCE	STATUS
Recommendation 1: That the JSCEM specifies the breadth of coverage of disclosure believed necessary under the Electoral Act, from which the existing legislation can be reviewed and, as necessary, redrafted.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM has yet to report on this recommendation
Recommendation 2: That, where an arrangement has been entered into which has the effect of reducing or negating a disclosure obligation under Part XX, disclosure is to be made as if that arrangement had not been entered into.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation
Recommendation 3: That all those involved in an arrangement found to have been contrived to avoid disclosure should be subject to a financial penalty sufficient to act as a deterrent to engaging in such arrangements.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation
Recommendation 4: That where a receipt of $1,500 or more has been omitted from a disclosure return of a political party, associated entity, donor to a political party, candidate or Senate group, or the details of a receipt included on such a disclosure return do not clearly identify the true source and value of those funds, then a sum equivalent to that receipt should be forfeited to the Commonwealth.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation
Recommendation 5: That where an outstanding debt of $1,500 or more has been omitted from a disclosure return or the details of that debt included on such a disclosure return do not clearly identify the true source and value of the debt, then a sum equivalent to that debt should be forfeited to the Commonwealth.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation

RECOMMENDATION	SOURCE	STATUS
Recommendation 6: That section 318 be amended to strengthen the test for an agent to be allowed to lodge an incomplete disclosure return by specifying certain minimum steps required to have been taken before they can be considered to be unable to obtain all necessary particulars. These steps should not, however, be considered an exhaustive test as to what should be considered reasonable attempts. Such steps must have been taken before the due date for lodgement of the return. The section should contain a penalty provision for deliberate inaction or the provision of inaccurate information.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation
Recommendation 7: That the Electoral Act be amended to require that a political party be deregistered for continued failure (two or more years running) to lodge an annual return or a properly completed annual return.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation
Recommendation 8: That all entities and groupings whose membership or existence is significantly linked to or dependent upon the existence of a registered political party be treated as associated entities for disclosure purposes.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation
Recommendation 9: That the term 'benefit' currently used in the definition of 'associated entity' be further clarified by inserting the following interpretation: that 'benefit' include instances where the benefit is enjoyed by members of a registered political party on the basis of that membership.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation
Recommendation 10: That the cumulative thresholds outlawing the acceptance of anonymous donations apply irrespective of the source of the gift.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation
Recommendation 11: That donations received from outside Australia either be either prohibited, or forfeited to the Commonwealth where the true original source of that donation is not disclosed through the lodgement of disclosure returns by those foreign persons and/or organisations.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation

RECOMMENDATION	SOURCE	STATUS
Recommendation 12: That debts and loans sourced from outside Australia or owed to an entity outside Australia either be prohibited, or forfeited to the Commonwealth where the true original source is not fully disclosed by the political party or associated entity under that commitment.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation
Recommendation 13: That entities that operate through 'shell' political parties be required to assume full disclosure responsibilities under the Electoral Act such that the true source of funds used by that party are made public.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation
Recommendation 14: That the amount to be forfeited to the Commonwealth where a sum deemed to be illegal under the disclosure provisions has been received, be increased to double the value of the sum received.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation
Recommendation 15: That the suspension of party registration activity under section 127 of the Electoral Act cover the period from the issue of the writ for an election until polling day in that election.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation
Recommendation 16: That section 129 of the Electoral Act be amended to require that the AEC will refuse an application for registration if the proposed name of the party is the same as, or so closely resembles as to cause confusion, the name of a recognised (as defined) organisation where that organisation has advised the AEC that it does not agree to the use of the name by the party.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation
Recommendation 17: That section 129 of the Electoral Act be amended to require that the AEC will refuse an application for registration if the proposed name of the party contains the name of a person.	AEC Submission of 03 August 2001	JSCEM yet to report on this recommendation

Recommendation 14: That consideration be given to amending Section 305 to provide that the due date for 'third' party (eg donors) returns is some time after the due date for candidate returns. They are currently due on the same date and different due dates would bring these returns into line with the due dates for annual returns.	FAD 1993 Post Election Report	JSCEM has not commented on this recommendation
Recommendation 15: That consideration be given to repealing the remainder of Section 305A (as amended by Commonwealth Electoral Amendment Act 1995).	FAD 1993 Post Election Report	In the time that has passed since this recommendation was made it has become clear that there is a public expectation that this level of disclosure be retained. However, it is still the case that there are issues relating to the administration and interpretation of the section that need to be clarified. The AEC therefore now recommends that section 305A be revised to clarify who is meant to be captured by paragraph 305A(1)(c), extend the due date for lodgement of returns and clarify where donations to endorsed candidates should be reported.
Recommendation 16: That a discretionary power be provided in the Act which would enable those advertisements which are clearly using the election as an advertising gimmick to be discounted by the Australian Electoral Commission for the purposes of Section 309(4).	FAD 1993 Post Election Report	JSCEM has not commented on this recommendation Legal advice obtained subsequent to this recommendation being made indicates that this issue still needs to be clarified.
