

Fit-out of new leased premises for the Bureau of Meteorology, Melbourne

Public works at the new leased premises of the Bureau of Meteorology at 700 Collins Street, Docklands, Melbourne, are being inquired into by federal parliament's Public Works Committee. Worth an estimated $22 million, the proposed fit-out will allow the bureau to fulfil Australia's obligations under the Convention of the World Meteorological Organisation with regard to Melbourne as a World Meteorological Centre.

If you have any comments to make on the proposed work, including its need, cost and value for money, please write by 17 January 2003 to:
