Subject: LAFHA

I have now been in Australia since March 25th 2011, my move to Australia has been a massive financial commitment as I have kept my belongings in my UK household. LAFHA has helped me considerably since my arrival in Sydney as it has allowed me to obtain the same quality of lifestyle for which i was custom to in the UK. I would be grateful if consideration was taken into perhaps offering a one year cooling off period before it is removed in its entirety.

Kindest regards
