Subject: new child custody

Dear Sir/Madam

I would like to strongly oppose the proposition for new child custody arrangements. I strongly feel it is against the best interest of my children. I believe the decision as to the custody of the child should be made on a one-to-one basis, not as a general law. I am in such a situation that I cannot imagine how shared custody could be beneficial to my children. I believe in my case, it would cause instability and disruption in their further upbringing. I would like to request an appearance before the committee to give evidence in person.

Yours sincerely
