

Subject: Pricing Inquiry

Hi,

I would like to make a submission regarding the price gouging occurring for digital products. This is evident via the game distribution network called "Steam".

Steam determines your area of residence both by your ISP and your credit card details/paypal account. It forces you to pay for software at the rates which are significantly different from other locations such as the USA.

The following website shows clear examples of the differences in prices for no reason other than area of residence - <http://www.steamprices.com/au>
